

Camp Chaplain Responsibilities

Introduction

Daughters of Utah Pioneers continue in the tradition established in 1901 of welcoming a spiritual element into its organization. Though nondenominational, DUP invites reverence into its meetings through uplifting thoughts and prayers. The chaplain leads this effort.

Summary of ISDUP Constitution and Bylaws

This is an appointed position.

Responsibilities

1. Present Thought

- Present a thought at monthly camp meetings prior to the prayer as outlined by ISDUP.
- Monthly thoughts are found at: ISDUP.org → Leadership tab → Chaplain Thoughts.

2. Provide Prayer

- Provide a prayer at monthly camp meetings preceded with the monthly thought furnished by ISDUP.
- Offer a thought and prayer at other camp functions as part of the agenda and where called upon.

3. Resources Found at ISDUP.org

- Chaplain Thoughts