

The Daughters of the Utah Pioneers

Simplified

Janette Murdoch McMullen

DUP Opening Song for Camp and Company Meetings

Tune: Tramp, Tramp, Tramp

Set by Alfred M. Durham

Arr. by Jane Bindrup Dye

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. Let us turn our mem - 'rys back, far a - long those drear - y tracks, To a
2. (Find - ing) here the prom - ised land, 'mid those moun - tain vales so grand, They were
3. (Ere u) - ni - ted in their ways, they their flocks and herds did raise; They did
4. (As their) chil - dren when we meet, in these vales so grand and sweet, We will

3

band of pil - grims filled with hope and pray'rs. They had left their homes their all, to o - hon - est serv - ing God who brot them thro'. Nice log hous - es did they build, with large card, and spin and weave, and make their clothes. With their faith - ful, hon - est toil, they did prize their lives of serv - ice more than gold. And we'll love them more and more, as we

6

1, 2. 3, 4.

bey the Fa - ther's call, They were la - ter called the U - tah Pi - o - neers. 2. Find - ing fam - ilies they were fill'd, Oh they sure - ly build - ed bet - ter than they knew. 3. Ere u cul - ti - vate the soil, And they made the des - ert blos - som as the read their his - 'try o'er Tho' the half of this great sto - ry's ne'er been rose.
told.

10

Then all hon - or to their name, — Who have giv - en us this fame, As we meet from day to day, Let us lift our hearts and say, We are Daugh - ters of those grand old Pi - o - neers. 4. As their neers.

15

3. 4.