We love to hear your stories and welcome you to send them to the Legacy.

Ellen Jeppson
ISDUP President

The Days of '47 Royalty has been chosen with Queen Ellie Simmons from South Jordan, Utah; Attendant Megan Haynie from Perry, Utah; and Attendant Jacquelyn Bazinet from Lehi, Utah. Pictures and bios of these amazing young women can be viewed on the homepage at ISDUP.org.

In April of this year, we read of an earthquake with a magnitude of 5.2 that hit the area just outside of San Diego, California. As reports were telecast on news stations around the nation, a special video was shown from the San Diego Zoo recorded in the elephant enclosure. This video showed that as soon as they felt the shaking of the earth, the herd of African elephants rushed to the center of the enclosure and backed their bodies close together to form a protective circle around their young. Called the “alert circle,” the elephants’ natural response was to gather and protect the herd against a perceived threat. Ndula, Umngani, Khosi, Zuli, and Kmhaya instinctively knew they would be stronger together during this frightening event. None of them were hurt.

I have seen people gather together in a circle many times including: sports teams as they encourage each other and celebrate in victory or comfort in defeat; families, as they welcome new babies, show support and love, and bid farewell at the time of death; and friends, as they learn and grow together.

The pioneers also valued the strength of a circle. Each night they backed their wagons together in the form of a large circle, herding the most vulnerable animals into the center for protection. It was here that the pioneers could cook, wash, and sleep with safety.

As daughters of Utah pioneers we can also gather in a circle, whether figuratively or literally, to strengthen our Companies and Camps. With like-mindedness, compromise, and goodwill, the Society can grow, and be stronger together in meeting DUP goals and objectives.

I look forward to seeing many of you at our International Seminar/Convention on June 21 this year. Being together and learning more about DUP makes a bigger circle to give all of us strength and purpose.

We know much of what our pioneer ancestors sacrificed for us. We show our appreciation, admiration, and love to them by emulating their lives and remembering their stories.

With respect and gratitude,
Ellen Jeppson

LEGACY EDITOR

My favorite responsibility on the ISDUP board is to attend District Conventions. I enjoy meeting with daughters in a variety of locations to learn about their love and admiration for their pioneer ancestors. As I meet and talk to members and read about the activities and events of Camps and Companies that are submitted to me as the Legacy editor, I know that the pioneers, who sacrificed so much for us, are proud of all that is being done to remember their stories and honor them. Thank you for the work you do to preserve the memories of your ancestors. — Stacey Page

ROYALTY FOR 2025 DAYS OF '47 CELEBRATION

Queen Ellie Simmons is attending Brigham Young University majoring in psychology. She has a deep love of music and sings and plays her guitar incorporating songs she has written. For much of her life she has performed at rest homes and numerous community events. A four-month humanitarian trip to Costa Rica gave her the opportunity to teach English to children, and she also served a mission for her church in Bolivia. Ellie is the daughter of Anna Simmons from South Jordan, Utah, and Curtis Simmons from Henderson, Nevada.

Attendant Megan Haynie is attending Brigham Young University majoring in communication disorders which will allow her to become a certified Speech Language Pathologist. She volunteers at food pantries and tutors children. Megan is a trained classical singer and performs with the women's choir at BYU. She is also fluent in Spanish, writes poetry, and plays the piano. She served a mission for her church. Megan is the daughter of Paul and Natalie Haynie from Perry, Utah.

Attendant Jacquelyn Bazinet is attending Brigham Young University majoring in marketing. She was an intern at a dolphin research center in Florida and lived in Puerto Rico working as a mother's helper for a family with ten children to earn money so she could serve a mission for her church. Jacquelyn is a ballroom dancer and has musical theater and vocal training. Food bank drives, Sub for Santa, and singing at assisted living centers are some of the ways she serves her community. Jacquelyn is the daughter of Jacque and Marilyn Bazinet from Lehi, Utah.

The trio was chosen during a scholarship competition held on March 29th at the Pioneer Memorial Museum in partnership with Days of '47, Inc. They were selected by a panel of judges based on a video and personal interview centered on this year's theme, "Pioneer Spirit — Pioneer Strong!" Their goals, accomplishments, poise, leadership, community service, and being a direct descendant of a Utah pioneer who came to the Salt Lake Valley between 1847 and May 10, 1869, were other qualifications.

During their reign the Royalty will represent Days of '47 and ISDUP at numerous events in addition to speaking at youth, church, community, and civic organizations. To schedule an appearance or speaking engagement please contact their advisor, Constance Huntsman, 801-450-2757 or cdhalice@gmail.com.

PIONEER MEMORIAL MUSEUM TURNS 75!

The Pioneer Memorial Museum, which stands tall and proud on Capitol Hill in Salt Lake City, is the headquarters of International Society Daughters of Utah Pioneers. Dedicated on July 24, 1950, the façade and interior were designed to look like the Salt Lake Theatre, which was torn down in 1929. The original curtain from the theatre hangs on the north wall of the Main Floor. The 75th Anniversary of the Pioneer Memorial Museum will be held on July 24, in conjunction with the annual Open House from 11:00 am until 2:00 pm.

In 1897, the fiftieth anniversary of the first pioneers coming to the Valley was celebrated with the Pioneer Jubilee Semi-Centennial. Five days of activities were held, A Relic Hall displayed artifacts from the pioneers. The sum of $3,500 was appropriated for the construction of the temporary building on the southwest corner of South Temple and Main Streets. The building, which was modeled after the Parthenon in Athens, held hundreds of artifacts and attracted enthusiastic crowds.

In 1903, a relic hall in a twelve-by-fourteen-foot room in the basement of the LDS Church Tithing Office in Salt Lake City was established. The relics were displayed in a large cabinet bookcase that once belonged to Brigham Young. The collections were later moved to the Lion House, the Deseret Museum, and finally the recently completed Capitol Building. By 1929, it was reported that the DUP had twenty-seven cases of artifacts on display at the Capitol.

Around 1910, the DUP women began fundraising for their own permanent museum. After years of working with the legislature and considerable debate, a triangular shaped piece of land at the head of Main Street was set aside in 1936. Fundraising continued during the Great Depression and World War II with hopes of the completion of the museum coinciding with the pioneer centennial in 1947. A lawsuit over taxpayer funds delayed the project for three years.

The Carriage House, which houses Brigham Young's 1847 wagon and other significant artifacts was made possible through the estate of Sara Marie Van Dyke, a daughter of a Utah pioneer. It was dedicated on October 6, 1973.

According to Museum Curator Kari Main, the Pioneer Memorial Museum is often referred to as "Utah's Attic," a term that DUP wholeheartedly embraces. We invite you to visit this collection of more than 50,000 artifacts and 2,000 pioneer portraits that tell the story of a unique group of stalwart people who played a significant role in taming the West. Admission is always free, and operating hours can be found on the website: www.isdup.org > Museum > Pioneer Memorial Museum.

If you are interested in learning more about the history of the Pioneer Memorial Museum there is a link on the Museum's page on the website.

KEEP IT OR NOT?

WHAT TO KEEP AT THE END OF THE DUP YEAR

Company or Camp Secretaries should sort and permanently keep in a file folder: minutes, officer lists, Annual Statistical and Financial Reports, Membership Dues Summary Sheets, and Camp Rosters.

Whether or not to keep scrapbooks is for local leadership to decide. If discarding, review and pull-out documents, such as Camp Charters or histories of Company or Camp. Scrapbooks may be donated to local historical societies or DUP satellite museums, or scanned and kept in digital form then discarded. International does not have space or manpower to handle Company or Camp materials unless scanned into one digital file and submitted to: membership@isdup.org. That digital file would then be attached in the membership database to the appropriate Company or Camp.

Historians may have a collection of pioneer histories. Compare them to the International collection before discarding. The Index of pioneer histories is found at isdup.org > History Department tab > Pioneer Index.

Company or Camp financial records of income and expenditures should be kept for seven years. Bank statements are kept for two years. This need not be in paper form if accessible online at a bank.

THE EDWIN AND LEAH OAKLEY SMOUT LOG CABIN DEDICATION

After a decade of laborious work, which included herding the cows out of the cabin, negotiating with Marriott-Slaterville City, rebuilding the cabin with a north side, adding a new roof, doors and windows, two moves, and furnishing with artifacts from the original cabin, the Edwin and Leah Oakley Smout log cabin was dedicated on June 1, 2024.

The cabin was originally built by Stanford Bingham on Mound Fort Hill. In 1856, the Smouts purchased the cabin and moved it to their lot in Ogden City. In 1859, they purchased a farm in Slaterville, Weber County, Utah, from Johnathan Browning and moved the cabin there. Edwin and Leah Smout raised eleven children in this cabin and built a modern home around the entire cabin in 1882.

Thanks to Jean Hodson Branch, of the Susan Marriott Camp, Weber North East Company, Marriott-Slaterville, Utah, who headed up the restoration as the Director of the Satellite Museum. Her committee consisted of: Marilyn and Ren Meyerhoffer, Patsy and Fred Hunt, Annette Christensen, Peggy Bushell, and Robyn Schofield, with Noreen Horning and Sherry Morris, posthumously.

Two days of celebration were held at the cabin location at 1570 West 400 North. One was held for the DUP members (140 attended) and one for the community (80 attended).

The committee hopes that the cabin will memorialize the sacrifice that their ancestors made in coming to the valley of the mountains to begin a new life.

875 YEARS OF DUP MEMBERSHIP CELEBRATED AT JUBILEE – HATS OFF TO DUP!

Such a fun day! Washington West Company celebrated their Jubilee on Wednesday, February 19, 2025, in St. George, Utah, with the theme, "Hats Off to DUP!" The attendees wore hats, which highlighted the Company Daughters' youthful personalities. Twenty-six Daughters were awarded member-ship pins ranging from 25 years to 60 years resulting in 875 years of DUP membership!

These beautiful ladies were visions of loveliness and the activity gave them all an opportunity to see the Daughters' Sunday-go-to-meetin' high-fashion feminine frocks and delightful hats. One of the attendees commented, "Beautiful young people are irregularities of nature; beautiful old people are works of art." These lovely women are wonderful examples of aging gracefully and beautifully while staying active and vibrant and being anxiously engaged in worthy causes as they serve others.

The hats were judged and prizes given for the most beautiful, outrageous, useful, and creative designs. Each of those in attendance enjoyed the candy-filled favors in the design of Sunday hats. The Snow Canyon Camp hosted the event and served several different kinds of soups with rolls, butter, and Texas sheet cake.

CAMP DALE LESSON ACTIVITY

As part of her March lesson, the Camp Dale Lesson Leader, LeAnne Seely of Emery Company in Circle Dale, Utah, had the Daughters make replicas of the rock homes that were talked about in the March lesson, "History of Box Elder County."

WAYNE COMPANY HOSTS ELEGANT TEA PARTY CELEBRATION

The Wayne Company, in Bicknell, Utah, held a charming and elegant tea party that brought together members and guests for an afternoon of history, tradition, and community bonding. The event was held April 7, 2025, at the Wayne Community Center in Bicknell. Guests, dressed in their finest tea party hats, fascinators and attire (some vintage), arrived at a beautifully decorated venue. It was adorned with antique teapot table settings, miniature teapot favors labeled "DUP Is Our Cup of Tea" and tea party quilts. The atmosphere was filled with fanciful music and included a Company activity slideshow, a photo booth, and lively conversation as attendees honored the legacy of their ancestors.

The gathering was in celebration of three main events: Daughters of Utah Pioneers 124th birthday, organized April 11, 1901; recognition of a group of Company members' anniversaries with the organization; and the installation of new Company Officers.

A history of tea parties was given, relating the tradition to pioneer ancestors, who often packed their treasured tea sets only having to discard them along the overland trek to make room or lighten the load. Refreshments were served and featured a delightful selection of herbal tea blends. Many attendees brought their own vintage teacup. Teas were paired with an assortment of delicious cupcakes, croissant sandwiches, and fruit salads.

The daughters were grateful to gather, celebrate their shared history, and honor those who built the foundation for their community. This event was not only a chance to enjoy each other's company but served as an opportunity to reflect on the resilience and strength of their ancestors.

PIONEER ARTIST PRESENTATION

Linda Wardle

Linda Wardle, a member of the Hawthorne/Deer Creek Camp, Wasatch Company in Midway Utah, recently participated in a presentation hosted by the Wasatch Sons of the Utah Pioneers. The discussion was about C.C.A. Christensen, Linda's great-great-grandfather. Christensen was a famous pioneer folk artist during early church history who painted many familiar pieces depicting that time period as well as Bible and Book of Mormon scenes.

A NEW BENCH IN FAIRVIEW

The North Bend Camp, Sanpete North Company, Fairview, Utah, has recently donated a bench with a plaque on it. The bench is next to a monument that was originally built in 1956 honoring the founding fathers of Fairview. The original monument was built out of stones pulled from the local streams in Fairview by daughters of the Camp. The monument had to be rebuilt years later with oolite stone. This project was organized under the direction of Peggy Underwood. She and Becky Roberts were instrumental in doing fundraising for the bench and plaque.

MORE THAN A SCRAPBOOK

Cyndy Petersen

Cyndy Petersen, South Jordan Camp, Salt Lake South Point Company, in South Jordan, Utah, does a wonderful job of taking pictures for their Camp scrapbook. It is more than a scrapbook because she includes the dates, activities, and names of those photographed. This is a history book in living color.

The Camp appreciates all the effort that Cyndy puts in to keeping the history of their Camp.

A NEW CAMP IN PLYMOUTH, UTAH

The Plymouth Peak Camp was created April 15, 2025, in Plymouth, Utah, North Box Elder Company. This Camp, under the leadership of Captain Bonnie James, has three members that transferred from other Camps and nine new DUP members.

INITIAL POINT CAMP VISITS THE BOISE FAMILY SEARCH CENTER

The Initial Point Camp, Ada South Company, in Meridian, Idaho, gathered to enjoy a luncheon before carpooling to the Boise Family Search Center. They visited the DUP “LDS Pioneers of Boise” marker prior to participating in a class at the Family Search Center. Each daughter had a computer to access the ISDUP website to determine if their pioneer ancestors had biographies and photos at the ISDUP museum’s History Department. Dennis Bassett, director of Boise Family Search Center, guided the women on how to use the Family Search Center and website so they can write their missing pioneer biographies.

Book and gift counter sales will run from 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The Company Officer Training will be from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. The Convention, which starts at 10:30 a.m., will host speaker Scott R. Christensen, Manager of United States/Canada Acquisitions in the LDS Church History Department. Scott will share unique and notable experiences from 36 years as an historian and archivist. “Tales of Triumph” Volume 8 for the 2025-2026 DUP year will be for sale, as well as other items from the Museum gift shop. Hope to see you there!

170TH ANNIVERSARY OF LAS VEGAS MISSION AND FORT

The DUP Companies in Las Vegas, Nevada, will co-host the 170th anniversary celebration of the Las Vegas Mission and Fort. The event will take place at the Old Las Vegas Mormon Fort State Historic Park on June 14, 2025. Previous generations of daughters fought valiantly to save the adobe fort remnant and placed two monuments on the property. The Las Vegas Companies continue to support the history of the Las Vegas missionaries who arrived in 1855.

BENSON GRIST MILL CAMP OUTREACH

Each August the Benson Grist Mill Camp, Tooele Valley Company, Stansbury Park, Utah, has a booth at “Stansbury Days” with information about Daughters of Utah Pioneers. A PowerPoint presentation about the history of the historic Benson Grist Mill and the community of Stansbury Park is shown on a large screen next to the table. The table includes taffy, recipe books, history books, information about joining DUP, and activities for children. Individuals interested in joining DUP sign a clipboard and the information is forwarded to the appropriate Camps in the county. The booth has been very successful and each year several people have joined DUP because of this outreach activity.

Pioneer Mysteries

These two women have yet to be identified! There were no guesses from the last Legacy. Please remind your camp members to check the photos in our mystery article to help us learn the identity of these mystery people. You can let us know by emailing your answers to: photos@isdup.org. WHERE IS THIS PIONEER HOME?

Many pioneers used stone instead of wood to build a lasting home. This home was built for Martha Williams Howell and her children in 1869 after her husband left the Church and his family. Fortunately, she had inherited money from her parents in Wales so she could provide her children a warm, secure refuge. Where is this pioneer home located? Check the June bulletin for the answer!

This is what the house looks like 156 years later!
