

Camp Officer Installation Procedure

Following Camp elections, Officers are installed using this procedure by May 31. The installing Officer can be the Camp Parliamentarian or a Company Board Member. (From ISDUP Constitution and Bylaws, pg. 19.)

Installation of Elected Camp Officers

The installing Officer shall read this statement filling in their name and the name of Company, or Camp:

I _____ a Member of International Society Daughters of Utah
Name of Installing Officer
Pioneers, _____ having been appointed official Installation
Name of Company or Camp Installing Officer Represents
Officer and thereby having the right and privilege to install Elected Officers of International Society
Daughters of Utah Pioneers of _____ Camp.
Name of Camp

I say to each of you: "You are about to assume an important Office, and I charge you to study your duties contained in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Society and learn from your predecessor."

Will the Elected Officers of _____ Camp please listen
Name of Camp
as your Captain repeats the pledge.

The Elected Camp Officer's Pledge

The installing Officer shall read this statement and the Camp Captain will repeat, inserting her own name:

I _____ of the _____ Camp,
Name of Captain Name of Camp
International Society Daughters of Utah Pioneers, promise for myself and fellow Officers that to the best of our ability I will uphold the Constitution and Bylaws and promote the work of this Society with love, dignity, and honor."

The installing Officer Company, Camp Parliamentarian, or Company Board Member shall ask the Camp Elected Officers to stand and answer the following question while inserting the appropriate names.

"Do you Elected Officers of the _____ Camp promise
Name of Camp
to support _____ in this pledge? Raise your hands and Name of Captain
say, 'I do.'"
